SUMMARY:

On 3-30-2008 at about 1732 hours, Carlsbad Police received a cell phone call from a Hispanic female calling for help. Translators from the phone company assisting dispatchers and determined that an individual had fallen into a pond and was drowning. Utilizing latitude and longitude coordinates from the cell phone signal, dispatchers directed rescue units to 3004 Sunny Creek Rd. A small pond, about a mile from the entrance to the property, was located. Officers and firefighter/paramedics located three friends of the victim attempting to perform CPR. The victim, an unidentified Hispanic male adult was pronounced dead at the scene. According to the witnesses, the victim had walked onto an unstable dock and fell into the pond while attempting to catch fish. Efforts by his friends to pull him back to the shore were unsuccessful. According to his friends, the victim could not swim.

Identification of the victim is proceeding through the San Diego County Medical Examiners Office.
